On the ball with the Manager

Welcome to today's visitors Liverpool who need very little introduction.

They are one of the best club teams in the world and at the time of writing looked certain to be heading for yet another Football League championship.

Tonight's game has, of course, come about because the original fixture was a victim of the atrocious weather that brought football to a standstill after Christmas - and next Tuesday's home game against Spurs is being played at the end of the season for the same reason.

We face Liverpool knowing that we are safe from any threat of relegation, but that is no reason why we should relax.

At Leeds last Wednesday night, we conceded five goals for the first time this season and I felt that there were a number of contributing factors to this.

The only way youngsters will learn is by giving them a chance and our two full backs Mike Graham and David Burke are certainly two for the future.

As well, we lost Alan Gowling, with his cartilage operation having been brought forward from the end of the season, and central defender Paul Jones is taking a well earned rest after struggling for months with a groin strain which has simply refused to clear up.

None of these things help, but I am not making excuses. It was good to see Neil McNab get on the goal trail with our consolation effort at Elland Road.

I am looking forward to a good contest against Liverpool tonight.

Welcome to...

Liverpool's record - breaking eleventh League Championship success has been on the cards for weeks. Even though, after Easter, it was still mathematically possible for them to be caught, their closest rivals West Bromwich Albion knew in their hearts it was all over bar the shouting.

Throstles' fans perked up a bit when Liverpool's unbeaten run of 13 League games was surprisingly brought to an end at Easter, when they went down 1-3 at Aston Villa. But the Reds regained all their old poise in the following game when they beat Bristol City and they have never looked likely to let their huge advantage shrink.

Liverpool have looked Championship material right from the opening day of the season. They set such a phenomenal pace, dropping only one point in their opening 11 games, that most of their rivals were almost ready to concede the title even at that early point. It wasn't until they lost a pulsating derby game at Everton at the end of October that they showed the remotest sign of dropping any more points.

Prior to the weekend they had been beaten only four times in the League, all away from home — at Everton (0-1), Arsenal (0-1), Bristol City (0-1) and Aston Villa (1-3).

At one point Liverpool looked set to win the League and F.A. Cup double. They reached the semi-final of the F.A. Cup and, after coming from behind to draw 2-2 with Manchester United, they were hot favourites to win the replay. But they went down 0-1.

Another disappointment was their elimination from the European Cup in the first round when they were ousted by Nottingham Forest (0-2).

Manager Bob Paisley has been fortunate in that his team has steered clear of any serious injuries. But, so keen is the competition for places at Anfield, that anyone dropping out through even a minor knock realises he could have a fight on his hands to get back again.

Emlyn Hughes, the England skipper, discovered this when he was forced out through injury. Though he continued to play for England, he found himself in Liverpool's reserve-team!

Alan Hansen came in to replace Hughes in the middle of the defence, alongside Phil Thompson, and played so well that he was called up for the Scotland squad. When Hughes eventually regained his place it was at left-back when Alan Kennedy had the misfortune to receive an injury. Phil Neal has held the right-back spot all season.

Mr. Paisley explained the decision to leave out Hughes: "I felt it was only fair to keep Hansen in as he was playing so well and, as we were winning nearly all our games, I felt it would be unwise to disturb the successful combination."

Liverpool normally play to a 4-3-3 formation with Terry McDermott, Ray Kennedy and Graeme Souness in the middle of the field. When McDermott was out through injury, Jimmy Case played in midfield.

Kenny Dalglish and David Johnson have been spearheading the attack with either Steve

Heighway or Jimmy Case operating as the third forward.

Liverpool opened the season by winning their first three away games, at Ipswich, Manchester City and Birmingham, with a goals record of 10-1 and, in between, they crushed Spurs 7-0 at Anfield.

The one inexplicable result during that whirlwind period was the Reds' 0-1 defeat at Sheffield United in the second round of the League Cup. The Blades, as we have subsequently seen, have been struggling desperately to avoid relegation to the Third Division.

That isolated lapse in concentration can be easily forgotten

now as Liverpool have rightly established themselves as the most successful English club team of all time. They are the only English club to win the European Cup twice and to collect a total of four European trophies.

The Reds are about to finish in one of the top two places in the First Division for the seventh season on the trot — something no other club has ever achieved.

And, of course, they are the only club to win the First Division on eleven occasions.

Very soon now they will take a breather and start planning for the Glorious Twelfth!

RAY CLEMENCE (Goalkeeper). Ray has been battling it out with Peter Shilton for the England place for a couple of years or more. But Ray has received the lion's share of international appearances and played against Northern Ireland this week. Liverpool signed him from Scunthorpe in 1967.

PHIL NEAL (Defender). Phil joined Liverpool in 1974 from Northampton for £60,000 and he is now an England international, playing his 16th game against Northern Ireland this week. He made his bow in League soccer with Northampton in 1968/69.

PHIL THOMPSON (Defender). Phil has now taken over from colleague Emlyn Hughes in the England team, winning his tenth cap against Czechoslovakia recently. Phil developed in the juniors at Anfield making his first League appearance in 1971/72.

ALAN HANSEN (Defender). Alan has been performing so well for Liverpool this season that he was called up to the Scottish squad by Jock Stein this week. Alan made his name in Scottish football with Partick Thistle and, after three seasons in the senior team, he was snapped up by Liverpool for £100,000 in 1977.

EMLYN HUGHES (Defender). Even if his international career should now have come to a close, Emlyn can look back on a wonderful run of 57 caps and, of course, he touched the climax of his career when he was appointed captain of England last year. Emlyn has been performing superbly for the Reds in defence, and sometimes in midfield since his £60,000 transfer from Blackpool in 1966. He also won England under-23 honours and has now been part of all Liverpool's recent triumphs.

ALAN KENNEDY (Defender). Alan joined Liverpool from Newcastle last summer. While at St. James' Park he won six England under-23 caps and he was in two losing Newcastle teams in Wembley Cup Finals.

TERRY McDERMOTT (Midfield). Terry, who won two England caps last season, began League life with Bury in 1969/70 and moved on to Newcastle for £25,000 in 1973. Liverpool signed him a couple of years later for £175,000.

JIMMY CASE (Midfield). Jimmy made his League debut for Liverpool in 1974/75 and has been in the side for well over three years now. He scored all three goals when we went down 0-3 at Anfield in September and he has netted seven times this season.

RAY KENNEDY (Midfield). Ray, who has played for England on 11 occasions, was once rejected by Port Vale, but he became a very good striker in his Arsenal days, twice topping their scoring list. It was following this £200,000 transfer to Liverpool in 1974 that he was switched to midfield.

GRAEME SOUNESS (Midfield). Graeme, whose control and distribution are such a joy to behold, has played himself into the Scotland team. He served his apprenticeship with Tottenham but never got a game in their League eleven. Middlesbrough signed him for £30,000 in 1972 and collected a cool £352,000 when he joined Liverpool last season.

KENNY DALGLISH (Forward). Kenny made a remarkable start with Liverpool last season, netting five goals in his first six matches following his £400,000 transfer from Celtic. He made another tremendous start this season with 11 goals in ten League games, though he dried up a little after that.

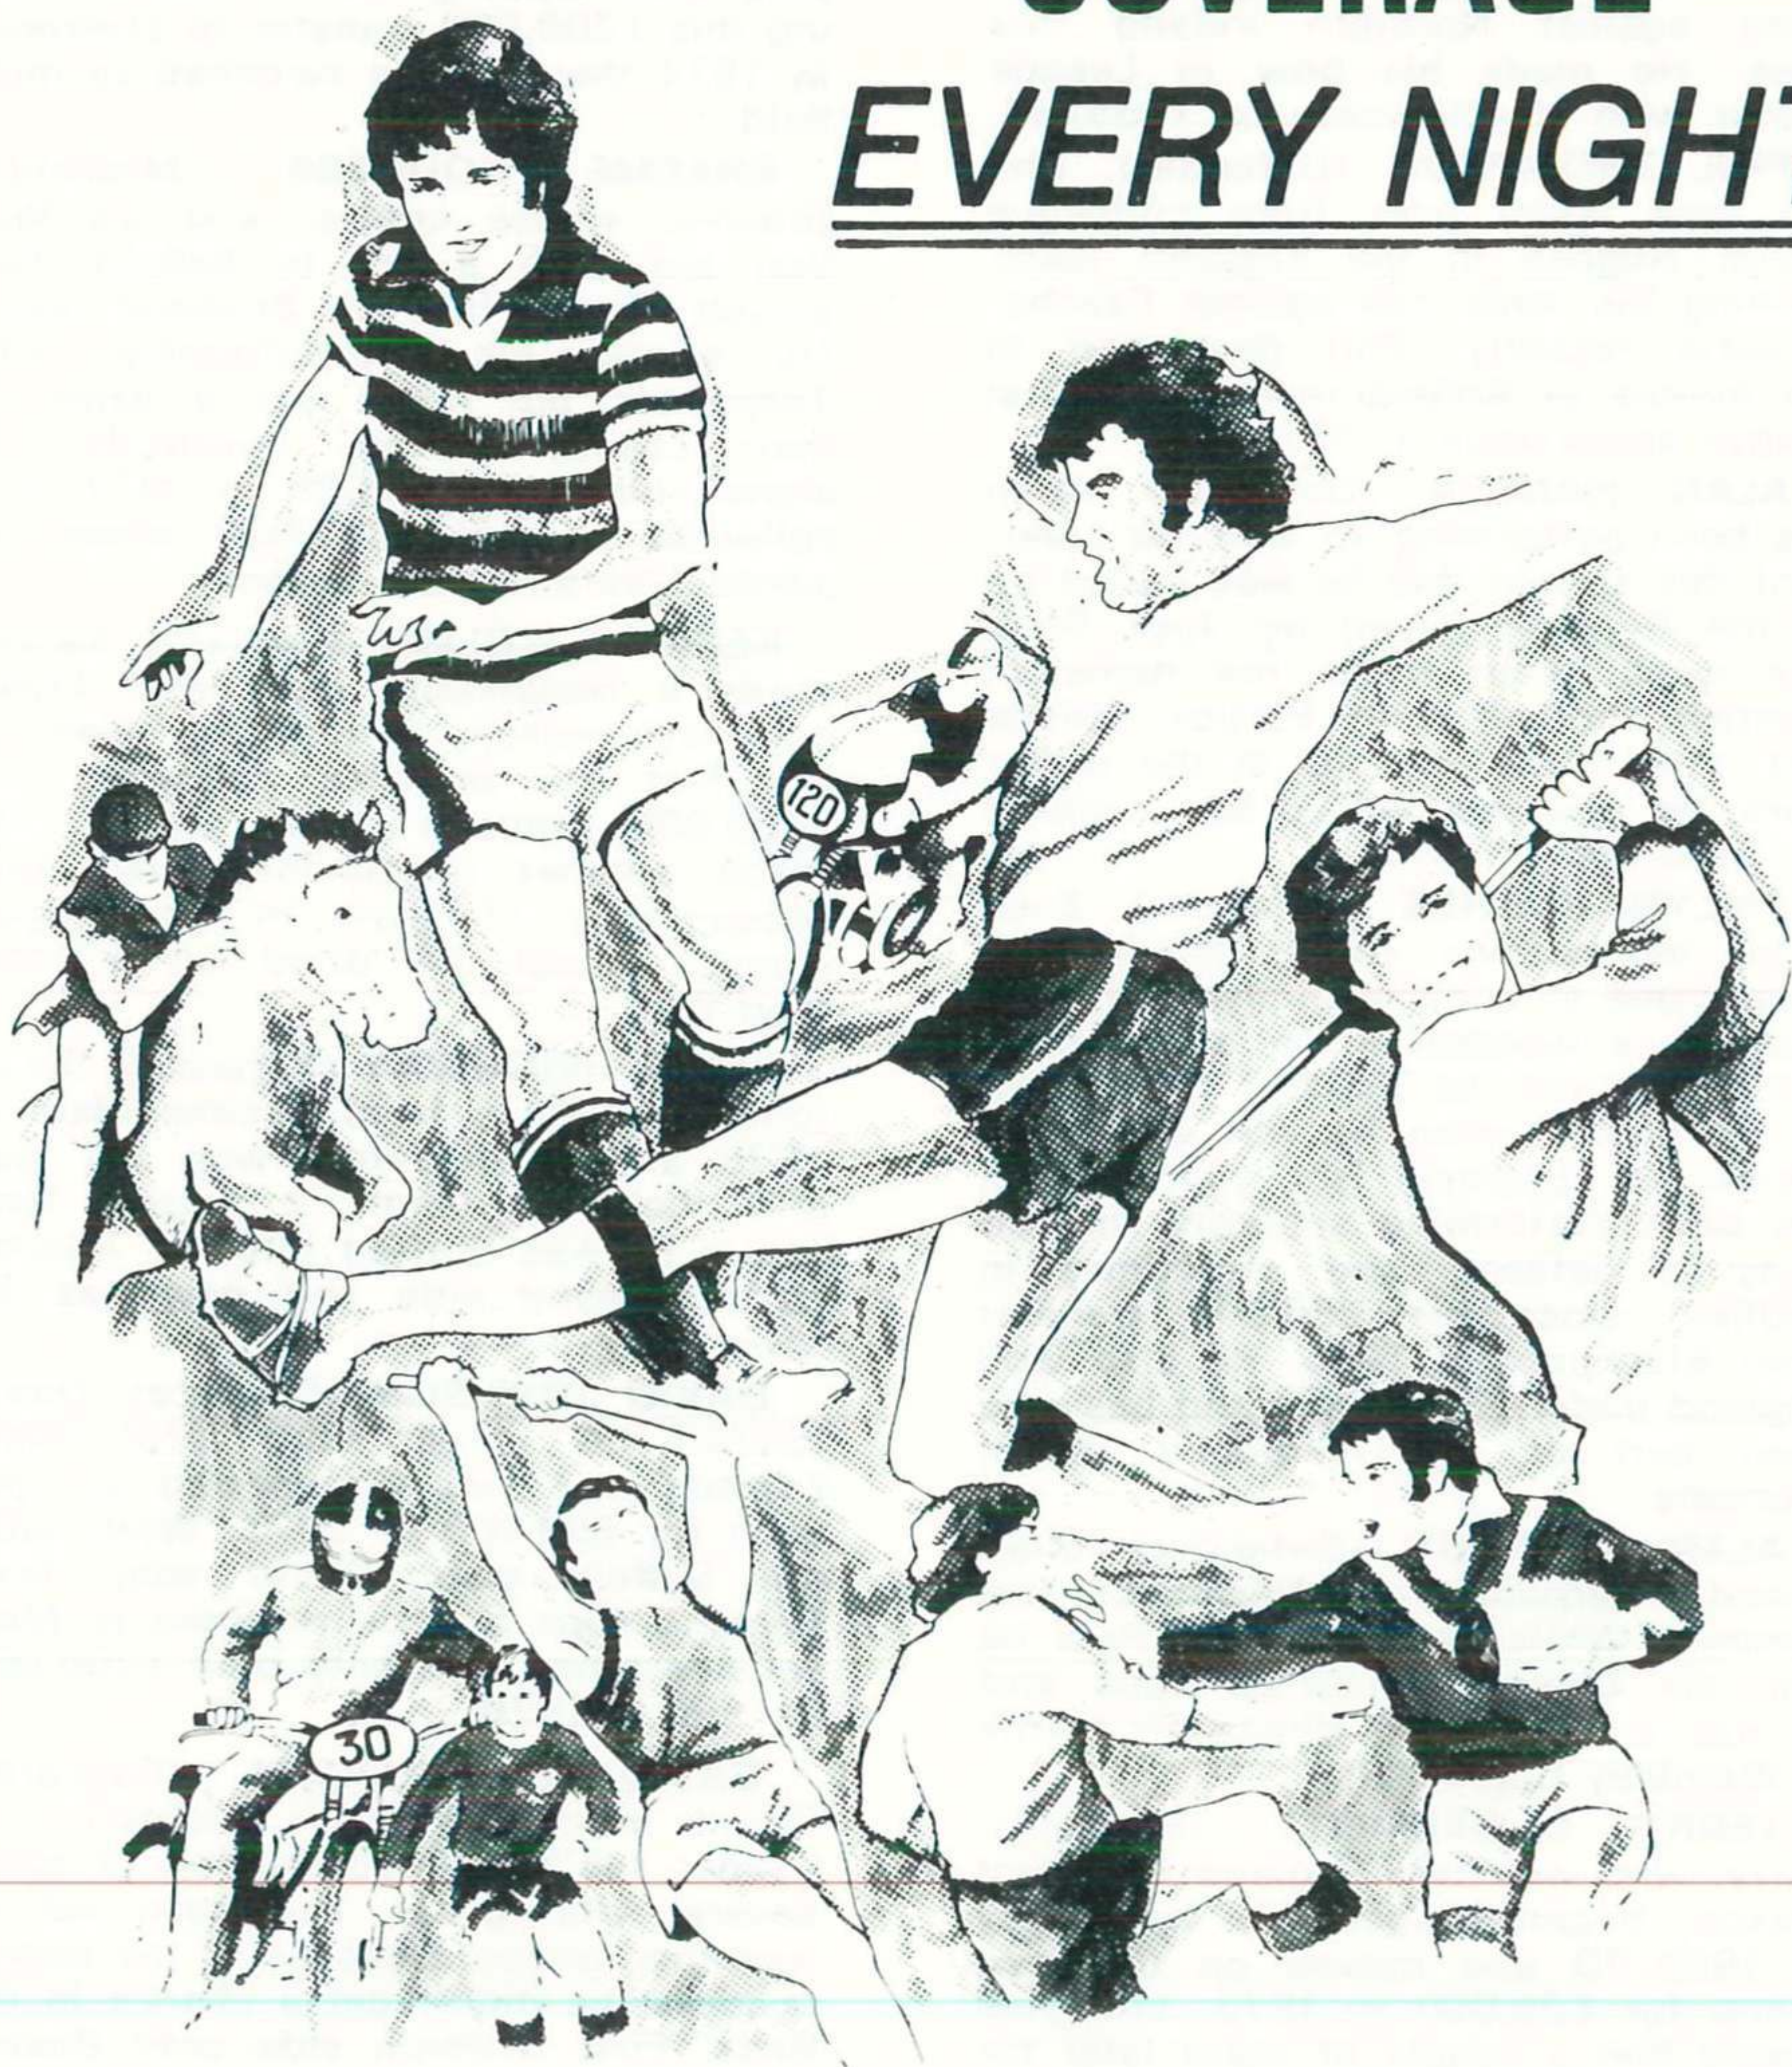

STEVE HEIGHWAY (Forward). Steve joined the Reds from Skelmersdale in 1970 and immediately won his way into their first-team. It wasn't long before he was drafted into the Republic of Ireland side and now has 20 caps.

DAVID JOHNSON (Forward). David opened his career with local rivals Everton and was transferred to Ipswich for £50,000 in 1972. While with the Suffolk club, David won three England caps and he returned to Merseyside when Liverpool paid £200,000 for him in 1976.

DAVID FAIRCLOUGH (Forward). David, who earned his reputation as "super sub" after coming on to score several vital goals, has been out of luck this season. Because of the team's success, he didn't get a chance in the Reds' First Division side until Boxing Day.

ENGLAND TRAVEL CLUB

The Football Association has formed an England Travel Club. The objects of the Club are two-fold, namely to provide tickets for the genuine supporters travelling abroad to support the England team and to avoid any repetition of the kind of embarrassing incidents that have occurred from time to time in "away" matches when the poor behaviour of a comparative few has badly let down the genuine supporters.

In future, tickets for matches abroad will be sold only to those who hold an England Travel Club Identity Card and who have given an undertaking to abide by simple conditions of good behaviour.

If you are interested in giving your support further details can be obtained from The Football Association, Pit your wits...

1. Has the referee power to add on time because of accidents or wasting time?

2. If the player who kicks off at the start of a game plays the ball a second time before it has been touched or played by another player, is this an offence, and if so how is the game re-started?

3. When a referee re-starts a game by a dropped ball, what action should he take if it goes over the touch or goal line before it is touched by a player?

4. When extra time is necessary in a Cup competition, which team kicks-off?

5. If a player touches the ball before it reaches the ground when the referee is re-starting the game by dropping the ball, can play be allowed to continue?

6. May a goal be scored direct from a throw in?

7. If the ball strikes a half way flag and rebounds into play, should play be allowed to continue?

8. In which town or village was Peter Nicholson born?

9. In which years did Bolton Wanderers win the FA Cup?
